U.S. State Department Supported EducationUSA Network:

<http://www.educationusa.info/turkey>

State Department supported EducationUSA advisors can provide free advice and individual consultation sessions for anyone wishing to pursue higher education in the United States. Each of the offices offer fully stocked libraries with college guides and test preparation materials. Upon request, advisors can provide lectures/trainings to area high schools on statement of purpose writing, liberal arts education, choosing a university, filling out the Common Application, and more.
